

Mathematics for Economists(Econ 300.01)

(formerly known as Math Camp)

- Begins: Monday, August 2, 2010
- Ends: Friday, August 20, 2010
- Time: Monday through Thursday, 9:30 am – 12:30 pm
- Location: Social Sciences 311
- Instructor: Dr. Daniel Graham (dag@econ.duke.edu)
- Materials: Simon and Blume's Mathematics for Economists (ISBN 978-0393957334, W W Norton, April 1994). Please purchase this book well in advance of arriving for math camp so that you will have adequate time to complete the below prerequisite:
- Prerequisite: Before the beginning of math camp, students are expected to cover chapters 1 – 15 of Simon and Blume.
- Course content: The instructor will cover chapters 16-19, 21, 23-25, and 29-30 of Simon and Blume.
- Registration: Please register for the course through the University Registrar's online registration system, ACES. You will have access to add the course after you activate your NetID password. The course number is Econ 300.01, and it is listed under Summer Term 2.

Please send any questions you may have regarding the above to Jen Counts at jennifer.counts@duke.edu.