

Jackson Bunting

PhD Candidate

jjb56@duke.edu

Duke University

sites.google.com/view/jbunting

Department of Economics

Citizenship: Australia, UK

Field: Econometrics

US Green Card pending

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Economics (MA en route), Duke University, 2021 (expected).

Bachelor of Commerce (1st Class Honours), Economics, University of Melbourne, 2011.

Bachelor of Science, Atmospheric Science, University of Melbourne, 2010.

PUBLICATIONS

"On the Iterated Estimation of Dynamic Discrete Choice Games", with Federico Bugni, Review of Economic Studies (forthcoming).

WORKING PAPERS

"Continuous Permanent Unobserved Heterogeneity in Dynamic Discrete Choice Models" (JMP).

"Testing Homogeneity in Dynamic Discrete Choice Games via Permutations", with Federico Bugni and Takuya Ura.

ONGOING RESEARCH

"Heterogeneity, Uncertainty and Learning : A Semiparametric Identification Analysis" with Arnaud Maurel and Paul Diegert.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Graduate Assistant for Federico Bugni, Duke University, 2017-2020.

Research Economist, Australian Government Productivity Commission, 2012-2014.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant for Ph.D. Econometrics sequence, Duke University, 2016-2017.