MASTER'S IN ECONOMICS AT DUKE

M.A. in Economics
Ph.D. Prep; Careers in Applied Econ, Data Analytics, Finance

M.A. in Analytical Political Economy
Joint with Political Science

M.S. in Economics & Computation
Joint with Computer Science

WHY DUKE ECON?

HISTORY OF SUCCESS
- 263 students placed in top PhD programs since 2012—#1 in the U.S.
- Alums now tenure-track faculty: Yale (4), Penn (2), Chicago, Duke, Columbia, Texas, Bowdoin, Wake Forest, USC, NYU, & many more
- Consistent non-academic placement: Amazon, Ernst & Young, FB, Fed Reserve, Google, McKinsey, Uber, UN, World Bank

INTERDISCIPLINARY COURSEWORK
- Students have flexibility to tailor to their specific interest and can take Ph.D. Econ classes.
- Alums have gone on in many fields: Econ, PolSci, CompSci, Stats, Finance, PubPolicy, Health, Environment, Marketing, Law, Accounting, & more

INDIVIDUAL ATTENTION
- Opportunities for all students to work closely with faculty and get involved in research
- Most students also have RA and/or TA experiences
- Individual advisors
- Alumni mentors in academia and industry

Need- and merit-based tuition reductions available

Interested? Register for a Zoom info session
- Thurs., Sept 17, 1 p.m.
- Tues., Sept 29, 7 p.m.
- Mon., Oct 19, 10 a.m.
- Wed., Oct 28, 7 p.m.

Duke Economics aims to provide an inclusive & welcoming environment for students of all backgrounds, especially those historically under-represented in economics.

Questions? Contact patrick.bayer@duke.edu
Visit our website for more information

Located in vibrant, diverse Durham, N.C.